Dear Professor,

Greetings of the day. I hope you are doing well.

I am happy and excited to inform you that we are organizing a month-long summer school on the project-based web-development course for the undergraduate students of Tongmyong University and the University of Delhi. The program will commence from July 4th till July 27th, 2022, every Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday at 9.30 AM Indian Standard Time. The entire program will be sponsored by the IITP, Ministry of Science and Technology, Government of Korea, and Tongmyong University. For the Indian students, the entire program will happen over the Zoom platform.

To inaugurate this great collaborative event, we are organizing an opening even on July 1st, 2022 at 10.30 AM Indian standard time. The opening program will showcase the importance of this partnership between the two universities and the growth of cultural and academic collaboration between the two countries. This program has been planned to strengthen the relationship between the two universities as well as to motivate the students. The opening event will be of 30 minutes duration.

Here is the link to ZOOM. This link allows professors and students in India to participate in the opening event on July 1st and also attend the month-long program from July 4th to July 27th. Please forward it to the professor in India.

I cordially request your presence at this opening event to celebrate the program. Kindly email the opening event link to all the participating students.

N.B.: Participation of all the students is mandatory.

Thanking you

With best regards,

Dear Prof. Chander Shekhar,

Greetings of the day. I hope this email finds you well.

I am writing you a mail again to extend a kind invitation to you for the closing ceremony of our program, scheduled for 26th July 2023 at 11.30am (Indian time) via Zoom.

Over the past four weeks, our program, under the guidance of Professors from DU, has been nothing short of amazing. The dedication and expertise of our esteemed faculties have made this learning journey truly exceptional. The program commenced on 3rd July and has been a remarkable experience for both students and instructors alike.

Throughout the program, our students from esteemed universities, Delhi University (DU) and Tongmyong University (TU), have diligently participated in classes conducted three days a week, four hours a day. Their dedication and hard work have culminated in the final presentation of their projects, which have been truly outstanding.

We cordially invite you to be a part of the closing ceremony and prize distribution ceremony, where we will celebrate the achievements of our talented students. The ceremony promises to be an enlightening and inspiring event as we acknowledge their efforts and award prizes based on their remarkable project presentations.

Your esteemed presence at the ceremony would be an honor for us and would undoubtedly motivate our students to strive for excellence in their academic pursuits.

제 목: Regarding Joining date and PhD degree

Dear Sir,

University of Delhi has announced that the convocation will be held on 4th November 2019. Please find attached University notification in this regard.

Under the circumstances it will not be possible to obtain provisional certificate from the university.

May I request you to confirm that it will be fine that I join Tongmyong University when I arrive in South Korea in the middle of November along with a copy of my PhD degree certificate duly apostilled.

Kindly suggest.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,

Indranath Chatterjee
