Sub: Collaborative Research Project

Dear Prof. Rajam:

Thank you for spending your valuable time during my recent visit to your laboratory to discuss and develop a joint collaborative research project on the "Development of Transgenic Brinjal Resistant to Fruit Borer (Leucinodes orbonalis Guenee) Through RNA interference", for financial support by our company. We are pleased to inform you that we are very much interested to have research collaboration with your laboratory and willing to undertake the above cited joint project. We will be happy to fund this joint project for three years with your proposed budget of Rs.22.618 lacs. We would appreciate if you could consider this joint project with your University.

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,
