Report of the Students' Evaluation Feedback Committee

The students evaluated courses in the MPhil, MA in East Asian Studies (Semesters I and IV), M.A in Japanese (Semester II and IV) and the full time language courses in Chinese, Japanese and Korean which were taught in the Department in the January - April 2012 semester.

The students rated teaching of most of the teachers as excellent. There were some suggestions related to the teaching style and pace adopted by certain teachers. These would be improved upon.

Improvements made on the basis of feedback received in the year 2009-10 and 2010-11:

- a) The students had some difficulty in coping with courses EA-101 and EA-202 of M.A. in East Asian Studies. After a series of meetings held among the faculty, both the above courses have been revamped completely and the new course structure after clearance by the FSS, has been sent to AC for further action. Hopefully, the new course structure will be followed in the coming academic session.
- b) Again, based on the feedback got from the students and further deliberation among the faculty, the chronological order of some of the papers of M.A in East Asian Studies have been re-arranged and this too has been sent for the approval of AC.

Some suggestions given by students in the feedback form

- a) The students wanted more audio-visual classes and also conversation classes in the language lab, which cannot be done on account of shortage/non-functioning of booths in the existing lab.
- b) The students felt that some courses in the M.A. and M.Phil programmes were too vast and needed to be made concise. This will be discussed in the faculty meeting and necessary steps will be taken by the teachers concerned.
- c) More books needed especially in the case of Korean Studies.

Based on the feedback received from the students, the Department would like to reiterate the following points:

1. The Department has been requesting for allocation of space for a new language laboratory and library which was agreed upon by the university authorities. However till date we have not been allocated the required space. It is hoped that we will get it soon so that we can have more audio-visual classes for all the language courses (15 courses in all).
2. The University is once again requested to give us at least three NON-PLAN posts in Korean Studies and Korean Language.

Report of the Students' Evaluation Feedback Committee

The students evaluated courses in the MA in East Asian Studies (Semesters I and III), M.A in Japanese (Semester I and III) and the full time language courses in Chinese, Japanese and Korean which were taught in the Department in the May - December 2012 semester.

The students rated teaching of most of the teachers as excellent. There were some suggestions related to the teaching style and pace adopted by certain teachers. These would be improved upon.

Improvements made on the basis of feedback received in the year 2009-10 onwards:

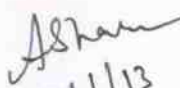

Based on the feedback received from students for courses EA-101 and EA-202, certain changes were made in the teaching process and these have been positively evaluated by the students this time.

Suggestion given by students in the feedback form

AS IN EARLIER SEMESTERS, this time also, the students wanted more audio-visual classes and also conversation classes in the language lab, which cannot be done on account of shortage/non-functioning of booths in the only existing lab.

Based on the feedback received from the students, the Department would like to reiterate this time too, following points:

1. The Department has been requesting for allocation of space for a new language laboratory and library which was agreed upon by the university authorities. However till date we have not been allocated the required space. It is hoped that we will get it soon so that we can have more audio-visual classes for all the language courses (15 courses in all).
2. The University is once again requested to give us at least three NON-PLAN posts in Korean Studies and Korean Language.
3. It is requested that other vacant positions in the Department may also be filled at the earliest.
4. Since the three languages of Chinese, Japanese and Korean form an integral part of teaching in this Department, we would like to request the university to assist us in making the class rooms multi-media enabled.

Report of the Students' Evaluation Feedback Committee

The students evaluated courses in the MA in East Asian Studies (Semesters II and IV), M.A in Japanese (Semester II and IV) and the full time language courses in Chinese, Japanese and Korean which were taught in the Department in the January - April 2013 semester.

Most of the teachers were rated as good / excellent by the students. There were some suggestions related to the course content, teaching material and style of teaching; these would be conveyed to the teachers concerned so that improvement could be effected in the next semester.

Improvements made on the basis of feedback received in the past:

There were complaints regarding paucity of books in the library and this has been taken care of now. A large number of relevant books in all disciplines have been procured for the library.

Based on the feedback received from the students for inclusion of some optional papers, a paper on "India's Look East Policy" was devised and after approval by the Committee of Courses and the Faculty of Social Sciences, it is awaiting approval by the AC.

Important points in the feed back forms

1. This time too, a vast majority of students expressed their desire to have more of audio-visual classes.
2. In the case of Chinese language, the students expressed their desire to be taught by a native teacher. For the last 5,6 years the Department has not been having any native Chinese language teacher.
3. The feedback received about the guest / ad-hoc faculty in Korean language was not positive; this underscores the necessity to have permanent faculty in Korean language.

Based on the feedback received from the students, the Department would again like to make the following requests to the university:

1. Space may be allocated for a new language laboratory and library.
2. At least three non-plan posts in Korean Studies and Korean Language maybe given to strengthen the Korean chapter of the Department.
3. The other vacant positions in the Department may also be filled at the earliest.
4. Multi-media enabled class rooms may be provided to make language teaching more effective and contemporary.

Report of the Students' Evaluation Feedback Committee

The students evaluated courses in the MA in East Asian Studies (Semester I and III), M.A in Japanese (Semester I and III) and the full time language courses in Chinese, Japanese and Korean which were taught in the Department in the July-December 2013 semester.

The students rated teaching of most of the teachers as excellent. There were some suggestions related to the teaching style and pace adopted by certain teachers. These would be improved upon. Some suggestions given by students are as follows:

1. In the M.A EAS courses, students found that the Japan and Korea parts of the course on East Asian Civilization were wanting in terms of relevant expertise. The comments on the Korea part of the course continue to reflect the dire paucity of faculty in the Korea division of the Department. The Department would like to reiterate that positions in the Korean Studies be granted and filled at the earliest. It is to inform you that the changes in various MA EAS courses have already been approved by AC and EC. The revised structure of MA EAS with updated course contents will be implemented from the academic session 2014-2015.
2. The M.A course in Japanese was rated as good but keeping in mind the feedback of students, changes in the course contents in the MA Japanese are being made by the Japanese Language faculty members. The revised courses will be implemented from the new academic session after getting approval from the university.
3. The full time PG Diploma and Advanced Diploma in all the three languages of Chinese, Japanese and Korean were rated to be excellent. However, the students expressed their desire to have more classes for conversation, especially in the case of Chinese language where there is no native teacher. This lacuna can only be filled if the University allows us to take in qualified Chinese nationals as guest faculty without emphasising the necessity for them to have UGC NET qualification.
4. Our visiting faculties were also appreciated by the students.

The feedback forms are shown to the concerned teachers for improvement in teaching style and course contents, if required.

The delay in the appointment of Dr. Khan for the Foreign Relations Paper had affected us as a number of interesting topics were missed.
An interactive way was chosen by Dr. Khan to teach this paper, else it would have become a monotonous paper (with only events & years mugging up).
The Evaluation done by Dr. Khan is appreciable.

Saurabh sir makes sure that each and every point is clear to the student. He has taught us the grammar really well. More of dialogue conversation b/w students can be done rather than only focusing on text, so that we can be practically more prepared. Regular tests also helps us the student. He has been a very frank and serious while teaching.

The course is fine, but the teacher is not. Probably he lags behind the skill to teach. He teaches us what-he thinks about a certain issue and when we try to write down our thoughts he never encourages us. If we have a different perception about a certain topic and which we don't match his opinion he simply deducts the marks. Another issue with him is he is doing Favoritism thing in class. If he likes a person he will give marks. While giving the term papers to him he gave us very nice environment, as if everything was perfect-but after in intervals he gave us less marks and said our term papers were bad then why give better & recognition in lab place
