CERTIFICATE OF APPRECIATION

This certificate is issued to Legal Services Clinic (LSC) running at Law Centre-I, North Campus, University of Delhi in recognition of its commitment to the cause of socially and economically weaker segment of the society, which cannot afford the services of legal representation. There are two university based Legal Services Clinics in North Campus, however, LSC at Law Centre-I is the best due to its continuous commitment and services provided to legal aid seekers.

Para Legal Volunteers (PLVs) and Faculty Members manage the Legal Services Clinic with total commitment and dedication. They are providing counseling as well as legal advice to less fortunate under the supervision of legal aid lawyers in an efficient manner. What really wins out here is the passion with which the PLV's work. This clinic has been able to implement one of the objectives of the policy of "Access to Justice for all" of NALSA, in its true sense. The dedication of PLVs and Faculty Members has been absolutely remarkable. We wish them all success and our continuous support in dispensation of their social and legal obligations.
