Proposed theme and scope of research for M.Phil./Ph.D.

Title:- PSYCHIC FACTORS: THE PRIME MOVERS OF POLLUTION AND PURIFICATION OF THE MIND. And the Scope:- Generally, the psychic factors are the factors, which arise and cease with a consciousness on the same the same object and base, a consciousness has. But, in reality, they are the factors, which enable us to study and assess the Buddhist metaphysics, psychology, ethics, etc. in the light of the basic principles of Buddhism, such as Four Noble Truths, Dependent Origination, and etc. It also delineates its values in understanding and solving existential problems in general and psychological problems in particular as well as in establishing a just and equitable society.

Major writings in the field in which you would like to pursue your M.Phil./Ph.D.

Though Several works related to the study of Psychic factors are available, but, as evident from the survey of different libraries, situated in Delhi and the INFLIBNET, no work has so far been done to evaluate their significance as factors, which act as the Polluting and Purifying our mind. So, the major writings referred would be from Pali texts.

Primary sources/field work, methodology, hypothesis/research, questions and issues in the proposed field of interest.

Proposed theme and scope of research for M.Phil./Ph.D.

Xuanzang a Chinese Buddhist monk described as the 'Prince of Pilgrims' whose main aim of the Indian journey was to find out the mistakes in Buddhist books and rectify them. As of now lot of work has not been done in the said field "In Quest for Dharma: Xuanzang's Forte of Buddhist Learning in India" which I decided to explore further as my theme of research in P.hd. After going through the research one get the clear picture of questions related to Xuanzang such as why did he decide to travel to Indian region? What did he learn from teachers and why? What was the method of teaching and learning at that time in India? How did he influence the technique of translation from Sanskrit to Chinese? What contribution did he make?
