- Sanction of the grant is subject to the conditions as detailed in Terms & Conditions available at www.serb.gov.in.
- Overhead expenses are meant for the host Institute towards the cost for providing infrastructure, general administrative support etc. including benefits to the staff employed in the project.
- While providing operational flexibility among various subheads under head Recurring II, it should be ensured that not more than Rs. 1.5 lakh each should be spent for travel and contingency.
- Budget sanctioned under Scientific Social Responsibility (SSR) is meant only for activities enlisted under SSR norms and under no circumstances it can be reappropriated.
- As per rule 211 of GFR, the accounts of project shall be open to inspection by sanctioning authority/audit whenever the institute is called upon to do so.
- The sanctioned equipment would be procured as per GFR and its disposal of the same would be done with prior approval of SERB.
- The institute will furnish to the SERB separate Utilization certificate and statement of real value to the SERB for Recurring (Grant) and General & Non-Recurring (Capital) grants, and a consolidated statement of accounts pertaining to the grant immediately after the completion of the project.
- The institute will maintain separate audited accounts for the project. A portion of the grant must be kept in an interest earning bank account which is to be reported to SERB. The interest thus earned will be treated as credit to the institute to be adjusted towards further installment of the grant.
- The research personnel sanctioned in the project, if any is co-terminus with the duration of the project and SERB will have no liability to meet the fellowship and salary of supporting staff if any beyond the duration of the project.
- The institute may refund any unspent balance to SERB by depositing the same in the account of SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING RESEARCH, payable at New Delhi.
