Dear Rawat,

While I am registering Univ of Delhi to Bill.com system (NurrOn's payment firm), I encountered one issue like below.

Vendor Email *

so_finance3i@admin.du.ac.in

Invalid email address

I want to ask my vendor to add their own bank account info

We will email your vendor a link to enter their receiving bank info. The link will expire in 14 days. After your vendor fills in their bank info, we will notify you that they are ready to get paid. Edit email invitation

Vendor type *

Business

Enter bills in *

USD - United States Dollar

It looks the email address of the finance person you gave me is invalid. Would you check this again and send me the valid email address? Thank you.

Sincerely,
DJ

Dear Dr Deog

Sorry for the late reply. I talked to the office today, they need a letter of sanction for the project separately so that the process can be initiated.

I have drafted a sanction letter herewith and request you please look into it and modify it if deemed necessary. I am here until this Saturday and if you can send back it to me (signed copy as PDF), it will be helpful.

- The email, ID to the office who will handle this project is

The Registrar
University of Delhi, Delhi-110007, INDIA

E Mail ID: so_finance3i@admin.du.ac.in

Whenever email is sent to them, please cc to me, so that I can pursue it further. They will act on the email once the copy of the letter is received and submitted to their office.

Thanks and regards

Hi Prof. Rawat,

I am waiting for your reply to the information I requested on Sep 22 below in Italic.

NurrOn uses bill.com to pay invoice . Please let me have the name and email address of the person who will set up electronic payment (60% initial payment within 60 days of full execution) from bill.com to Univ of Delhi. That person will get an email from bill.com along with the instruction on how to set up e-payment.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
DJ
